Dear Liz

Betty at the achieves gave me your address to see if you could help me with my family research.

My grandfather was George Robert Raybourn and my grandmother was Hixie Walker.

My father was Luther Raybourne, he went to school in Kreole and was raised in that area. He knew very little about his family and I am trying to find any and all information I can on them.

My grandfather married a lady named Nancy Jane Bennefield and when I was very small I called her Granddad Jenny and that is all I remember about her.

Betty said she thought you might have some information on my line of Raybourn's. They have several different ways of spelling the last name. If you have any information that you could send me I would be glad to pay you for your trouble.

Thank You

TWO KILLINGS AT KREOLE SUNDAY

Robert Bennefield, White, and George Nettles, Negro, Die Within Few Hours of Gunshot Wounds.

Two men are dead, one a negro, and two others are in the Jackson county hospital charged with murder, as a result of separate shooting scrapes at Kreole, the site of the Moss Point paper mill of the Southern Kraft Corporation, Sunday night.

Robert Bennefield, 45, died at the Jackson County Hospital Sunday night about 10:30 o'clock as the result of a gunshot wound received a short time earlier.

Bennefield is said to have declared in his deathbed that the wound was inflicted by George Rayburn, his other-in-law. There were no eyewitnesses, and Rayburn denies, so it is said, that he did the shooting, or at least he knew anything about it. A shotgun was used, and Bennefield was hit in the shoulder and through the body, apparently at close range, in front of his own home. Bennefield lived near the paper mill and was employed in the digester room of the mill.
He is survived by his wife and four children.

Rayburn is 61 years old, and a veteran of the Spanish-American War.
It is alleged that Rayburn at the time of his arrest was drinking, and that the two men had been visiting earlier in the evening the sick child of a neighbor. No cause can be assigned for the present time for the shooting.
Sheriff John D. Lowe and his deputies are making a thorough investigation.

The other shooting occurred Sunday morning about 5 o'clock in the negro quarters of the paper mill, the victim being George Nettles, who was shot by C. Augusta, another negro. The two fell out over a dice game and the port of the city marshal of Moss Point is that Nettles was sitting on the front porch of the house in the negro quarters when Augusta approached him with a single-barrel shotgun and fired at him, only one shot taking effect, that in Nettles' leg. After being hit Nettles ran behind the house and there, where he was later found, dying a short while later from loss of blood.
It is stated. Augusta was arrested at Escatawpa, and it is said, does not deny the shooting.

The trial of George Rayburn accused of the murder of Robert B. Bennefield, was begun on Thursday. A jury was selected and empanelled, all of the witnesses examined by late in the afternoon, when the court recessed until Friday morning. The argument of counsel will begin this morning, and it is thought the case will be given to the jury by noon. The defendant is represented by Attorney H. P. Heidelburg and Harold Gautier, the state being represented by the district attorney. Much interest is manifested in this case, as the murdered man was well thought of in his community, and the court room has been packed during the trial with interested citizens.

The calling together of a grand jury, finding of three true bills and the trial of three capital cases in four days is a record for any court. And then, the calling of the special term probably saved the county the stain of a lynching.
No matter how heinous the crime, an orderly trial by due course of law is better than a trial by mob law. Jackson county is to be congratulated for having such an efficient set of officers, and a business-like, impartial judge.

By two o'clock in the afternoon the grand jury had brought in two more indictments and were discharged for the term. These two indictments charged George Rayburn, white, with having murdered Robert B. Bennefield on the night of March 22, near the paper mill
of the Southern Kraft Corporation; and A. C. Augusta, negro, with having killed George Nettles, negro, on the same night and near the same locality as the other murder. Both defendants were arraigned and pleaded not guilty, and the case of Augusta set for trial on Wednesday, and that of Rayburn set for Thursday. 4-4-1931

MAN KILLS WIFE AND TRIES SUICIDE

Prisoner Uses Razor When Taken Back to Mississippi—Wife Native of Jackson County.

Hattiesburg, Miss., Feb. 11.—Slashing his wife with a razor and cutting her in the throat, from which wounds she died, then slashing himself across the throat, David Thomas, 35 years old, tonight was in a local infirmary in a critical condition. The tragedy occurred on a train a few miles north of Poplarville this morning. The motive of Thomas was not ascertained.

Thomas was being brought back to George county, Mississippi, on warrants charging him with burglary and kidnaping. He had been arrested in Orange, Tex., and was in charge of L. A. Robbins, a special deputy sheriff from George county. He was handcuffed, but on pretense of wishing to remove his overcoat he requested the sheriff to unlock the handcuffs. With hands freed, Thomas is said by passengers on the train to have taken a razor from his pocket and slashed his wife's throat before the sheriff could interfere. Then while the officer was trying to aid the woman, Thomas attempted suicide.

According to the authorities, Thomas and his wife had eloped from George county and removed to Texas. Mrs. Thomas took her baby daughter, Elsie, child by her first husband, Wiley Bryant, of Lucedale, Miss. It is said before they eloped Thomas had entered the Bryant home and at the point of a pistol demanded the child and took it and $100. It is for these alleged offenses that warrants were issued.

Mrs. Thomas was, before her first marriage, Miss Marjorie Rayburn, and she lived with her parents in Orange Grove, Miss. While a school girl she was married to Wiley Bryant, and lived with him apparently happily on the place of her husband's father, A. J. Bryant, near Lucedale.

David Thomas came to work on a farm near the Bryant place and met the wife of young Bryant. Later he persuaded her to leave her husband and they went to Orange, Tex.

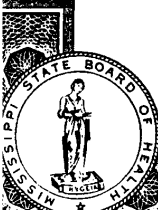

At a late hour tonight an announcement was made by physicians of the local infirmary, where Thomas was taken, that he is resting easily and has a good chance for recovery. He is in charge of the sheriff of Forrest county pending his recovery and will either be turned over to the George county officials, should he recover, or to the Pearl River county officials, in which county the murder of his wife occurred, as the train on which he rode was speeding along near Poplarville.
